What an amazing book, a must for Network Marketers old and new

By Florakate

I have read many personal development and business development books since joining a network marketing business 5 years ago. This is definitely one of the best. It is clearly written giving simple to follow tips and telling it like it really is. Thank you Mr Linden. I downloaded this book for my Kindle straight after seeing the author speak at an event, i couldn't wait for a hard copy. I started reading it immediately and soon realised I also needed a hard copy, one to write notes in and highlight the best bits. This book is a must read, especially for those new to network marketing. You will get simple, clear tip that can be applied to any network business, it doesn't matter what products or services you promote. I am putting it at the top of my must read list for all new partners joining my business. Brilliant!

Personal Development 'Must Have'!

By Kindle Customer

I read/listen to many personal development and business development books and over the last four years this stands out as one of the best. It is clearly written giving simple to follow tips and telling it like it really is. This book is a must read, especially for those new to network marketing - in fact I have three additional copies which I lend to new team members, before they buy their own! On reading the book you receive simple, clear tips that can be applied to any network business, it doesn't matter what products or services you promote. The book is great to refer back to and mine is covered in highlight and post it notes; its become essential to my business and its ongoing success!
