... up right where the previous story left off and enjoyed the adventure along the way

By Gundam_Phantom

The story picks up right where the previous story left off and enjoyed the adventure along the way. After reading this book I got the "Super Mario Bros." feeling. "Thank you for saving me but the princess is in another castle." As the previous story left on a cliffhanger, so does this one. I can hardly wait for the continuation of the story to see how Brinn develops or what new troubles await the hapless princess. Looking forward to Gatekeeper, hope it comes soon. If you are looking for spoilers read another review, I do not want to ruin the adventure that awaits you.

great second book

By gleeclub

i have to say that i really enjoyed the book. at first, i didnt care since i found out ahead of time what kind of happens in a broad sense. but, as i kept reading i found that the book became really good. note, brinn is really not the central character of this book which was the reason i bought the first book. anyway, still a great read and im off to start book three. looks like there's going to be more than 3 books since i didnt see anywhere on the preview that the third book is the final book.
