5 stars for Distant Innocence

By Renee Borgia

Could not imagine this book could be better than the first Stephen Miller book , I was wrong & now I gotta get my hands on the next one .Every character in this book has a story & all their stories are brought together magnificently !

A compelling read- a book you can't put down

By Bharbor

A richly written story that takes you in and out of the lives of 3 childhood friends and the people who come and go through their lives. Amazing detail makes you fall right into the story and you need to know more about these characters and their fates. Pease bring us the second part as soon as possible!

Another winner of a book

By Robert Rosenberg

This author has once again written a book that you won't be able to put down. The only negative is that this author cannot write new books fast enough. Make sure you are ready to read a book that you will thoroughly enjoy and thirst for more. A definite must read!!!
