I highly recommend this book

By Cindy Parsons

I bought this book upon the recommendation of someone who read it and revitalized his company as a result. I took it with me on a personal retreat, intending to spend the time contemplating my disastrous work environment. Instead, I began reading, couldn't put it down, and the entire focus and energy of my weekend shifted into a more positive, thought provoking, insightful perspective on the situation. I feel much more energized and empowered, and have a clearer insight into the nature of the environment, my own energy level and how it relates to my thoughts, emotions and actions (at work and in personal life), and how to shift my energy to transform any situation I'm experiencing into one that is very positive and productive and fulfilling to all concerned. I highly recommend this book, not just for those in the business world, but for anyone who would like to experience transformation in any aspect of their life, and learn how to interact with others on a higher level that promotes clarity, understanding, mutual respect, support, and a joyful connection, despite the nature of the outer experience. Very powerful.

Reviewed for a Doctoral Leadership class

By B. Henry

I agree with all the other reviews, this is a nice model for building personal and professional energy and leadership skills. I wrote a ten page review on it for a doctoral level leadership class, so I did an extensive study of the book and accompanying videos. The more you review, the more you get out of it. My main criticism is that there was too much time spent on the lower energy levels and basic leadership skills. I like the quotations from renowned leaders at the beginning of each chapter that described the content. The Energy Self Perception Chart is pretty cool, especially once you grasp all the concepts, like a chakra chart. After reading the book and doing the review, I find myself more observant of how I'm relating and shifting to higher levels, when I used to get stuck at Level 2 alot-conflict. The website has alot of good info in addition to products and services for sale like seminars and coaching services. The centering cd's were a little pricey $40 but you get four of them, have other relaxation/visualization cd's I will use. Overall an easy read, not too long, story a bit hokey at times but motivating. Would like to hear about Schneider's work with healthcare systems, not sure if he's done that type of work. Most testimonials were from individuals and business groups.

Excellent read. Clear and informative

By Consumer 5

Excellent read. Clear and informative. Though steps are clearly indicated and online videos provide some guidance you would need to use the company's support team to effectively implement practices within your life or business which could prove costly.
