FIRECLAWS: SEARCH FOR THE GOLDEN (ENCHANTERS OF XARPARION BOOK 4) BY T. MICHAEL FORD PDF

Five years have passed since the Lifebane met his demise.

But the Xarparion world is still anything but tranquil. Mercenaries, rogue wizards, petty tyrants and creatures more foul, have rushed to claim the lands once held by the Lich.

Sky Raven and her environs are at peace for now, but storm clouds are gathering. The King and Queen are powerless in the face of a strange malady that has befallen the world's dragons, even threatening their adopted daughters, the powerful silver dragons, Dawn and Dusk.

Neither force-of-arms nor powerful enchantments will carry the day against a foe they cannot hope to understand. What is needed is a top-notch research assistant to risk everything and journey into the troubled lands in search of a cure.

Along the way, of course, she and her Jag'uri companion, Naurakka, will make some quirky new friends, powerful enemies, and endure untold hardships...That's why adventuring is so much better than being a librarian! Right?

It is strongly recommended that you read the Enchanters of Xarparion trilogy before Fireclaws: Search for the Golden.

Love this world and all the characters both non and human developed by the authors fertile mind. These series of books are enjoyable and the story lines a great read. Hope there are more books to come. I have enjoyed this and now have to await any future books to come. Encourage people who like wizards, dragons and magic to read these books. Hope you enjoy them as much as I have

Stop reading reviews and start reading books!

By J. Parkes

An excellent fantasy series, this was book 4 and i read through the entire four set series in as many days enjoying them thoroughly. This author recently published a sci-fi book that was also a great read and that led me to this series, definitely a writer I'll be watching for future books.
