Couldn't put it down

I gave this to my 7-year-old son right before I turned the TV to the Olympics. His excitement about the Olympics was totally forgotten as he settled in to read looking up only occasionally. He report that the book is really great with lots of fighting stories.

Bedtime Stories I Couldn't Wait to Read

By TheAmazingLeper

Enthralling! Funny too. My daughters are 3 and 5. They LOVE this book. We've been reading it over and over for three weeks now. These myths are really interesting! Unlike the Greek version (which is also wonderful) the Norse myths featured seem to be more about entertainment than lesson teaching. This was boon for me as I'm always one to roll my eyes at the "moral" part of any story in children's literature since they're so rarely subtlety put. This book features sections on Loki and Thor, a bit about the beginning times, and a bit about the end times for the Norse mythology characters. They've inspired us to make our own Thor hammers and Frey swords. I wish it were longer or a series.
