This is not only a great book for internet marketers but it is also useful ...

By Rodney Renie

This is not only a great book for internet marketers but it is also useful for anyone going into business for themselves, The book starts out by telling how important it is to act on your goals and not just dream in order to achieve the desired success. Then it goes on to give illustration of specific people who made it successfully in business and what they did to achieve success. However with every business there has to be effective marketing to guarantee success, and in this day and age; the internet has given us the ability to reach the entire world simultaneously. Here you will find some awesome strategies used by today's internet marketers and how to apply them. I really love this book, reading it has made me realize how I can grow my business bigger than I have ever imagined. I highly recommend.

Good insight for business marketing

By Ashley Kraemer

Internet marketing is something any person who strives to own their own business should know about. With all the avenues available at our fingertips, it can easily become overwhelming. This book does a good job in breaking down the most important areas of marketing, and also in explaining how to get started in each area.

As always, any type of marketing takes practice, but after reading this book, I actually feel a little less overwhelmed than I did before. I plan to start using some of the suggestions in this book, immediately.

Overall, the book was written well, but there were a few little flaws in formatting.

I would definitely recommend this book to anyone looking for a place to start when learning to market their business.

Internet Marketing start your own business today!

By lisa carson

This book about internet marketing. You don't start marketing overnight you have to take baby steps to get good at it. You also have to believe that it may take you weeks, months or more to become really successful.

When dealing with the internet you have to figure out who can be helpful and who you can trust to give you more business. You can have your own business by marketing something you have created, or maybe wrote and so on.

You can help people out by writing blogs as well. When you market products or services that is considered internet marketing. A great way to attract business is by blogging. You can also video market, which will gain a lot of customers as well. If you want to learn more here is a book for you.
