Reading Skills

By Cristian Guzman

I bought this book because it was required for my cousin's ESL class and she really enjoyed it. I helped her with the readings and they were very interesting. It has information and images from National Geographic which I found to be really helpful to develop reading and vocabulary skills. Each unit of this book has two reading passages and an optional video activity. You will find cool images and very interesting topics related to culture, science, nature, etc. Highly recommend for all English learners.

it's relay useful

By ABDUALAH M AL KOUAN

i'm relay like this book , and good book to learn English There is information in the book useful and interesting and important in the words of the language and feel fun and exciting and travels around the world as you read the book. But I would like to know if there are writers with escorts or audio files?
